

SESSION EVALUATIONS AND FEEDBACK 2007 JULY TRUSTEE CONFERENCE

Responsibility for the Future: Leadership Commitment to Success

Presenter: Clint Maun, CSP

Were the stated learning objectives met? 4.73

Speaker's delivery was: 4.76

What specific feedback do you have about this session?

- This was excellent – information with humor
- Very entertaining and had some great points – I think it will be very useful
- P=S/ 4 types of people
- Simple, straight forward
- Great information and with his wit and humor made his message memorable
- Not only was this funny, but it brought home such great points about leadership and teamwork. Thank you!
- Excellent way to present points
- Good presenter – plenty of humor
- Good wake-up session!
- Outstanding!
- Good use of body and humor
- Very entertaining speaker
- Very practical and useful information
- Clint's mix of humor and insight really brings the issues to light
- Very applicable, very entertaining – holds audience attention
- Very fun.
- Excellent – great way to start at morning
- So glad you got him back
- Practical advice laced with humor – easy to listen to
- Good content really – but a smidge too much humor
- Great presentation
- Great way to start this morning off
- The speech seemed to me to be more pertinent to CEOs and staff than trustees who are policy formation
- A very forceful and entertaining session. All points were clear, relevant, and useful for future applications now
- Great morning session – active, funny and helpful
- Well done/fresh look at common problems
- Absolutely dynamic – I will use in work situation – thank you!
- Up-lifting, informative
- Mumbled sometimes hard to hear. It went fast – humorous
- Great! Love this because it applies to my everyday life as well. Good humor
- Excellent
- Excellent – great stories to make a point
- Each of us working with the future commitment for success.
- He is amazingly able to entertain at the same time as he makes theory points
- Outstanding!
- Didn't appreciate his style – cutting to women!
- Made sure attendees had discussion at table. Entertaining and useful reminder
- Very entertaining speaker – makes important points effectively
- Great speaker
- Lively presentation
- Good job but used some odd stats
- Hit on many things I can use!
- Good presentation

SESSION EVALUATIONS AND FEEDBACK 2007 JULY TRUSTEE CONFERENCE

Session #7 – Top Team Development: Defining CEO and Board Relationships

Presenter: Clint Maun, CSP

Were the stated learning objectives met? 4.86

Speaker's delivery was: 4.86

What specific feedback do you have about this session?

- Super
- Excellent!
- Again, very motivational
- Really helpful to stay focus on outcomes that we want
- Very informative and helpful
- Clint advocates boards being strategic vs. operational, but he has a lot of operational examples
- It was a very good session. I think the conference also has to work on session that deal with smaller organization where trustees need to perform both as trustee role and administrative role. Other topics: It would be great to have a session that deals with the basics of medical care on a community and how you assess these needs. A primer for beginners
- Very good topics to talk, board and CEO
- A-I on the mark
- Useful, entertaining
- A precise, dramatic, and humorous presentation that touched important CEO-board relationships. A needed, harsh touch of reality
- Very good job. Talks as the level or board member
- Excellent conversation – thank you!
- Fabulous use of humor and examples to make the points
- Good with rubber meets the road
- Great speaker. Good information
- Another great session
- Fun yet educational – allowed self measurement of own board and institution
- Great (correct) focus!
- This should've been a general session rather than a break out session

SESSION EVALUATIONS AND FEEDBACK 2007 JULY TRUSTEE CONFERENCE

Closing Session: The Future of Health Care in America

Presenter: Clint Maun, CSP

Were the stated learning objectives met? 4.65

Speaker's delivery was: 4.73

What specific feedback do you have about this session?

- Very current with his information. Thought provoking
- Talented speaker – makes important points
- Fabulous
- Unexplainable
- Funny, entertaining, good info – hard to follow fast pace
- Avoid speech pattern used for emphasis that are offensive to those of us with speech impediments. Otherwise – great!
- Very entertaining speaker but short on concrete advice
- Very thought provoking!
- Great
- Great!
- Thought provoking – entertaining – excellent
- Always entertaining with a great message
- Loved it! Took home a few good ideas/bits of information along with being very entertained
- Very entertaining – better be ready for change cause its coming ready or not!
- Please bring this person back! He gets the message out
- Thought provoking – very entertaining
- I'm not sure I found significant value in the content, but as always, I loved the presentation
- Good, but not as good as the first two times I listened to him!
- Very good – great speaker
- Once again, the humor was great – along with the topic. Thanks
- Good thoughts on what to expect as the next generation of employees
- Would have been a five but I think the cleft palate routine could be offensive
- Excellent!
- Great
- Good thoughts to try and put into practice
- Super
- Excellent message done in super way – entertaining way – Super!
- Insightful talk
- Even after the session, it's still difficult to understand the future of health care. A few ideas, concepts emerged, but these might have been expanded and exemplified
- Entertaining speaker
- So much info - so fun
- Excellent
- One session was excellent with his humor – two sessions got very old
- Very thought provoking, change is really retroing change in expectation and views
- Some humor. More than some humor. Too much humor which distracts from real message/information.